The passing of Mrs. C. J. Walker noted business woman and philanthropist, furnishes fine evidence of the foolish argument of certain whites on the subject of "social equality." Madam Walker was in a position, through the accumulation of wealth, to have held herself aloof from her own group, and sought her way, as certain whites, into a certain perfunctory notoriety by mingling with certain whites, in preference to her own. She did none of this, but was loyal to her own people until the last. All that she asked was the freedom to enjoy the blessings of prosperity, to help the needy of her group, and give opportunity to the meritorious and worthy. And even her last will and testament bears out this attitude. And, since her passing, her daughter marries one of our own. These noted people typify more than the average person of the Race, social service rather than social equality is the aim. There were thousands of white people only too glad to be recognized by Mrs. Walker.

Our papers are publishing gratis entirely too much "paid matter" and ought to stop it, especially in view of the greatly increased cost of everything that enters into the printing and publishing business. This week The Gazette received a long statement, with numerous errors, in behalf of Asst. Supt. Roscoe C. Bruce of Washington, D. C., which we have refused to publish unless it is paid for. Prof. Bruce is abundantly able to do so, too. Certainly, he is far more able to pay for its publication than our papers are to stand the cost of the same. This is equally true of much of the "copy" sent to the race press by Sec. Shillady of the N. A. A. C. P., the official publication of which the Crisis does not even "exchange" with most of our papers. And much of that publication's contents each month, is a "hash" culled from race papers. "Put on the brakes," conferees, and "turn them down hard." You, too, "need the money," a la Du Bois, and that captaincy in the Intelligence Bureau of the War Department.—Cleveland Gazette.

SOCIAL SERVICE AND SOCIAL EQUALITY.

Some one has well said "Social equality is a private question which may well be left to individual decision." It is unfortunate, and even strange, that so many American white people are frightened, and thrown in a frenzy by the use of the term "social equality."

Shrewd southern politicians, when all else has failed, know how to create a furor of indignation; they describe the most impossible scenes of race relationship and the outcome. The politically democratic South is obviously most undemocratic in public—public advisers—existence of class distinctions. There is in their attitude uncalled for elements that create friction and distrust.

NOW IS THE NEEDY TIME.

We were at the service of Ebenezer church one Sunday evening and the Rev. Osborne in his inimitable manner made a plea for the unsaved. A member of the excellent choir sang what appeared to be the favorite song and the entire audience took up the music of the words "Now is the needy time" as it seemed to breathe the unreasonable of attempting to shirk responsibility or to wait for time. And the words of the old Quaker came to us: "I expect to pass through this life but once. If there is any kindness or any good thing I can do to my fellow beings, let me do it now." In obedience to these words we thought that a fresh presentation of a few of our business and professional men might not be without interest.

Suppose we begin this visit with the Williams Kandy Kitchen, the Idle Hour Restaurant, Hawkins Lunch Room, and Todd's Barbecue place where there is an ample supply of good, simple, nourishing food. And why should we hesitate to eat voraciously at the Blue Goose Cafe? Over it are the offices of Dr. Peebles, a young physician and surgeon who exercises his art with caution and pays equal attention to all. Adjoining his rooms we find Dr. Stevens a Dentist, formerly of Kansas City, Kan., mastering the foundation of health which is the care and preservation of the teeth. Turning from these young men we go to the Fad Studio and the efficient Mr. C. Bruce Santes takes our picture before trusting us in the company of Messrs. Stovall and Welton, the undertakers. A month ago these young men decided that now is the time for our people of Kansas City, Kan., to have an up to date establishment and today they have well equipped parlors at 31 Nebraska Ave.

In order to leave you near the starting point we visited the Panama Theatre and were treated warmly by manager Frank Banks and Mr. Green, despite their success in making the theatre thirty degrees cooler than outside. The picturemen, the orchestra and the song by Mr. Joe Hamm were highly enjoyed. And we conclude that if our people expect these struggling race men to rear even a modest superstructure of success—"Now is the time" to attend carefully to the foundation walls.

Our old friend Alex Slater of Jefferson City has been called to Richmond, Mo., to attend the bedside of State Senator John M. Morton who has been his warm personal friend for many years and it is safe to say that Senator Morton will receive the best of attention from faithful Alex Slater.
